Gentlemen:-

Some four or five years ago I saw what I remember as a catalog of the society, beautifully illustrated with photographs of the medals in the museum.
I am writing to ask if it is possible for me to procure a copy of this publication. My memory is that the copy I saw had cost $10.00.

I am also anxious to know if the society or museum extends the service (offered in London to the public) to the public, ^{of this country} of selling plaster casts of any of the medals.

I am,

Very truly yours -

Hilda Canfield -

Dear Madam:

In response to your letter of January 8th, which reached me only today, I am very glad to send you, under separate cover, a copy of the Catalogue of our 1910 International Exhibition, for which you are correct in thinking the cost is Ten Dollars, and a memorandum to cover is enclosed.

Your enquiry about casts of medals is difficult to answer. Ordinarily, we are asked to furnish photographs of specific medals - rarely casts of anything except coins. Although we have but scanty facilities for making casts of any but very small pieces, if you could give me a little fuller idea of the purpose for which you desire such casts, it may be possible for us to meet your need.

Have you seen our Catalogue of the Exhibition of the National Sculpture Society held here last year? There is a section in that devoted to medals.

Very truly yours,

Enc.
